KOH SAMUI

Getting to know...

Situated in the Gulf of Thailand, bordering the South China Sea, Koh Samui is Thailand's 3rd largest island. Once a respite for fishermen, this charming island is filled with white sandy beaches, crystal blue waters, large green vegetation and friendly people. There are many fun-filled activities to enjoy here that run the gamut from elephant trekking and mountain bike riding to myriad water activities around its many surrounding island along the coast. The Scent Hotel is located on the most tranquil and serene part of Bangrak Beach northeast of the island. The hotel is 4km drive away from airport and 6km from the famous Chaweng Beach.

Restore yourself with a delicious breakfast at Le Jaroen before starting your adventure. Your first stop should be at the Big Buddha Temple, revered by the locals, the impressive statue stands 15 metres high. Then to Chaweng view and soak in the beautiful vistas of Chaweng Beach and the sea, before heading down to see the strange rock of formations which is known as Grandmother and Grandfather Rock.
